DID YOU KNOW!! That over 40 years ago; Sister Evangelist O.S.B. along with Sarah & the late Bill Erich; made it possible for the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima to travel home to home here in St. Marys? The NEW custodians are Rodney (Andy) & Bonnie Housler. They are now keeping Our Lady in their home. They invite you, your family or friends to call and arrange to bring the statue to your home for a visit.

When you pray to Our Lady, she always leads us to Her Son. Call the Housler's (814) 834-3214.

REFLECT

First Reading:

King David exercised great restraint and forgiveness in not taking the life of Saul. What do you think is needed to live one's life with this kind of spiritual disposition?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of believers in the present age bearing the image of the "earthly one" (Adam) and in the future bearing the image of the "heavenly one" (Christ). What do you think bearing the image of Christ looks like?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his disciples some very challenging moral imperatives, such as love of enemy, non-retaliation, and unconditional forgiveness. In what ways are you able to live out these ethical standards in your life? ©LPi

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

In studying the effects of religion upon family relationships, researchers inform us hostility and prayer can't coexist. You cannot be hostile toward someone for whom you are praying. Today's gospel encourages us: "Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who treat you badly."

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION CLASSES

Date: March 1, 2022 Time: 7:00 p.m. Place: St. Boniface Kersey
 814-885-8941

WORD OF LIFE!!

"Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you." (Luke 6:27) Usually your spouse is not your enemy (aside from occasional minor irritations). So join together to support each other in letting go of anger that either of you hold against someone who really annoys you.

THANK YOU

For the donations to the Church
 In memory of Peg & Glenn Bauer: $25
 In memory of David Hoy: $25
 For the donation to the Sacred Heart Social Committee

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL (CSA) 2022

By now everyone should have received their CSA info in the mail and also their Faith Magazine issue explaining the Appeal. February 26 & 27 will be Commitment Weekend. Hopefully, you have read over the info sent to you by the Parish Office and also Father Tom's letter to all parishioners. The CSA is an opportunity for Catholics throughout the diocese to join together in doing the work of the Gospel. CSA reminds us that we are all part of the same Catholic family and that the work of the diocese is the work of the church. Our goal this year is $44,718. Last year we were short by $4,000. This shortage has to be made up by the parish. If every family in our parish would give their "fair share", we could meet our goal this year and have money remaining for Parish improvement projects. Your gift is so important. Please give as generously as you can.

"NO Gift is Too Small."

PRAY!!

Are you looking for peace in your heart? In the new documentary, PRAY: THE STORY OF PATRICK PEYTON, you will meet the extraordinary man who dedicated his life to reminding people that true peace comes from God and a relationship with Him. Father Peyton's deep friendship with God and the Blessed Virgin Mary, combined with his tireless zeal, inspired millions of families around the world to discover how prayer would bring them together and transform their hearts.

SYNOD: KEY TERM # 4

What is discernment? Discernment is the process for finding out what we should be doing. It might involve doing research or making a list of pros and cons, as you would for any major decision, but it is more than that. Especially in a religious context, discernment means trying to recognize God's will. Fruitful discernment takes place in a space of prayer and study. It includes sincere conversations with appropriate people, self-reflection, and attempting to read the signs that God may be placing around us. We often speak of someone "discerning their vocation," which is something every person should do. In a similar way, discernment also happens on a communal level, from the local all the way up to the universal Church. Councils and Synods are always attempting to discern the will of the Holy Spirit, so that what they decide and teach may be what God wishes in that particular context. For communal discernment, dialogue is always more helpful than debate. Discernment should help us to understand our own needs and desires, but the final goal is to accept the will of God.

The Seventh Annual Catholic Women's conference in Erie is less than one month away! Be a part of it! The name 1:38 Women is based on the theme of Luke 1:38: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." The conference will be held on Saturday, March 12, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and the women from our diocese will gather to pray, reflect, and be inspired in three different ways:

1. Live in-person at St. Jude the Apostle Parish, located at 2801 W. 6th Street in Erie, Pennsylvania.
2. Virtually via Zoom at your own home.

The morning program consists of two amazing speakers, and Mass with Bishop Persico.

If you attend at St. Jude's or a satellite parish, you will enjoy two of our life-giving Sacraments: Holy Eucharist and Reconciliation. The event is $20.

For more information or to register visit www.1:38women.com or call (814) 455-7364.

Guest Speaker:
Patty Breen

Guest Speaker:
Lisa Hendey

ADDITIONAL CONFERENCE INFORMATION:

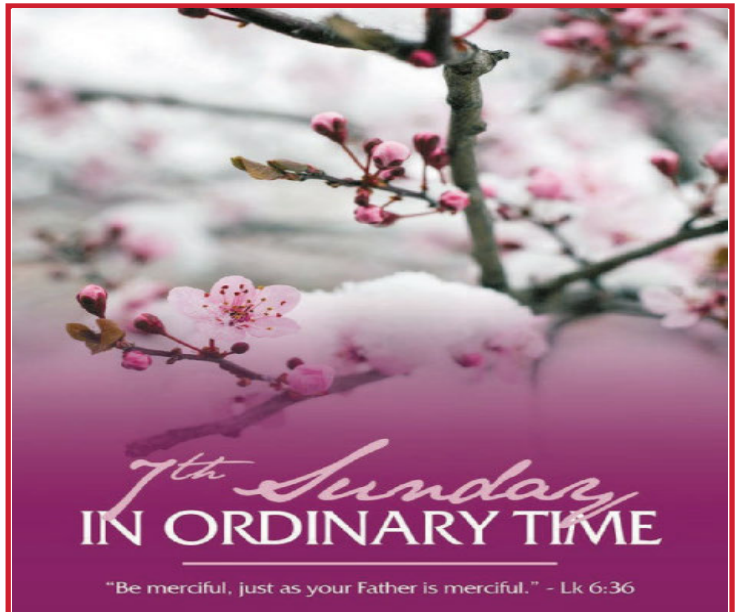

If you can't attend the Women's Conference in person St. Mary's Parish will be hosting the conference virtually.

Consider giving yourself a morning of relaxation to spend with other women talking about our faith. Don't wait...Register Today!

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this. Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips." If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.
