RCIA News

Do you want to learn more about the Catholic Church, her teachings and traditions? Why do we honor Mary? What is the Communion of Saints? Is Eucharist really Jesus Christ? Does God hear our prayers? Why do we go to "Confession"?

The RCIA looks at these and many other issues in the Catholic Church. Come and join us as we journey toward a closer relationship with God through Catholicism. Meetings will begin soon.

If you wish to join us, or just check out what we are offering, call Kathy Cheatle at 781-3009, or the Parish Office at 834-7861, Option 1.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT ~

Can you spend sometime with JESUS. He is welcoming you to come and sit with Him in Adoration every Friday. Can you spare just 30 minutes to one hour with Jesus. Sacred Heart is looking to add additional names to Adoration. It's really simple, all you have to do is call Kathy at 814-834-7861 Ext. 4 and give your name and time slot that you can sit in Christ presence. We will do this for the month of September and then come October there will be a new list placed on the bulletin boards that are located at the entrance of Center and Maurus Street

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The phrase in today's gospel, "I don't know where you come from," is often used by parents about children and children about parents. Change is so rapid one generation has little in common with another. We must depend on love, trust, and mutual respect to bridge this gap.

"...for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines."
(Hebrews 12:6) What does discipline look like in your family? As a parent is it easy for you to find effective ways to correct a toddler or teen? As a child do you resent a punishment or get over it quickly. Are there any changes that any of you would like to make?

COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA~

For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Courage~ True courage that we know we need, To make our lives worth living, Rests simply in accepting grace, Sharing love and then forgiving...
 All who walk the anointed path.

DOCUMENTATION FOR WORKING WITH CHILDREN:

Working alongside the Bishop, the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth reinforces the ongoing implementation of policies and procedures that protect children. All clergy, employees, and volunteers in the Diocese of Erie who work with children must undergo criminal record checks. The diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children and Youth screening guidelines and abuse prevention training programs emphasize the importance of knowing the employees and volunteers who have access to children in our schools and parishes. Parents should remain vigilant in insisting that those with access to their children have gone through an application process and obtained the required clearances and trainings before being granted access to their children.

Visit www.eriercd.org/childprotection/ to see what documentation and training is required for those who work with children and youth in our parishes/schools/

REFLECT:

First Reading:

The final prophecy in the Book of Isaiah speaks about the end times when God will gather “all nations and tongues” and all the world will finally see the full “glory” of God. Why do you think this event has been revealed to us?

Second Reading:

Our author of Hebrews speaks of the trials and tribulations of our lives as a “discipline” from God meant to teach and train us. Can you think of a lesson learned from some difficult situations in your life?

Gospel:

As Jesus continues on his journey to Jerusalem, he teaches the crowds about the urgency to accept his invitation for salvation. Why do you think so many people lack this sense of urgency for their own salvation? ©LPi

CHANGING THE NARROW GATE:

From doctors to counselors, anthropologists to schoolteachers, it seems like everyone has their own parenting style to peddle, guaranteeing it will result in a happy and well-adjusted kid.

You’ve got “gentle parenting,” predicated on respect for the child’s feelings and needs. You’ve got “attachment parenting,” based on the belief that kids need time to adjust to being outside of the womb. You’ve got “free-range parenting,” where self-sufficiency reigns supreme.

But of all the parenting approaches I’ve come across, I’ve never encountered a philosophy that rejects discipline altogether. There are lots of conflicting opinions on how best to administer that discipline, but I’ve never heard any parent or parenting “expert” worth their salt say that a mother or father should completely ignore misbehavior that threatens the well-being of the child himself.

Discipline is in our human DNA. Consider for a moment what the world would look like if it came to be filled with people who had never been taught to reflect on their life challenges. People who bristled at the suggestion of personal growth.

And yet we become this way with God. Even the most “devout” among us shy away from occasions of divine constructive criticism. We avoid confession and forego daily examinations of conscience. We keep things superficial in our prayer life, avoiding depth of heart and real intimacy with God, afraid of what He will speak to us.

But when we do this, we rob ourselves of an opportunity to rely on God’s fatherly strength, to rest in His mercy, to fill ourselves up with His goodness. We’re putting up our hands, saying: “No thanks, Father, I’m good. You can keep your discipline. You can keep your grace.”

When we do this, we are making a beeline for the “narrow gate,” sure of our own strength and ability to pass through it. All I can say is this, proceed at your own peril. Are you so sure of yourself? - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Gratitude ~

Question: How can I practice gratitude in my everyday life?

Answer: God has given each of us many blessings. Fostering an “attitude of gratitude” might be easier than you think. Simple, concrete practices can help us to be more thankful more often. Incorporate it into your dinner with your spouse, or as you tuck the kids into bed at night. “What are three things you’re thankful for today?” Make a habit of writing one note a week to someone special in your life, thanking them for how they’ve impacted you. This is also a good practice in the workplace. Consider opening your weekly meetings with a quick round of gratitude sharing. “I’m grateful John helped me with that last-minute change to my presentation last week. I wouldn’t have finished it in time for the meeting without him.”

Another way is to designate a few minutes to thank God. This could be the first bit of your daily prayer time or after you receive communion on Sundays. You can also integrate it into your daily routine. How about while brushing your teeth? There’s probably nothing so important it can’t wait two minutes. Brush your teeth, quiet your mind, and thank God from your heart for His blessings throughout the day. Get creative! Any moment is an opportunity to praise and thank God. ©LPi
