Luke 3:10-18 Blessed Advent!

Remember last week where we read about this crazy man John "crying out in the desert"? Well, this week we read about what the people of his time wondered about him. They all asked him "What should we do?" The crowds were asking, the tax collectors were asking, the soldiers were asking. And he answers each of them according to the temptation of their particular state in life. To the crowds he says, share of your abundance. To the tax collectors he says, stop taking more money for yourselves. Only collect from the people what is proscribed. To the soldiers he says, stop extorting money. And so, what must we do to prepare? I ask myself if I am sharing from even the little that I think I have. Do I charge more than a fair price for my work? If I lend money to anyone, do I expect too much more in return? I challenge myself this week, and I challenge you, to take some time and think about how we are preparing for the coming birth of Christ, in history, in today's world, and in the future when he will come to bring all of creation back to the Father.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

The Digital World: The digital world is constantly evolving with new social media platforms, apps, and devices, and children and teens are often the first to use them. Sometimes with negative impacts such as cyberbullying, sexting, or the posting hateful messages or content. Parents need to become aware and stay up-to-date on the latest apps, social media platforms and digital slang used by children and teens. Parents should monitor their child's social media sites, apps and browsing history regularly.

Visit www.eriecd.org/childprotection/ to see what the diocese is doing to help maintain safe environments for children and youth.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Help aging religious~ Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service, and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your gift to today's Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps to furnish medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please give generously.

Thank You

An Advent message from your Senior Priest, Fr. Eric

Scripture told us this past Sunday that St. John the Baptist appeared in the desert preaching a new order presented to the people, baptism of repentance with the forgiveness of sins for the Savior is on his way. It is tough to accept John because he was not ordinary and easily dismissed by his very presence of camel hair and unruly demeanor. The one thing that he preached was that the savior is coming so get ready. His humility was that he accepted his role without question.

HE WAS NOT A JUDGE BUT COULD READ YOUR HEART. He did not worry about his own welfare but what God asked him to do. He worried more about healing than about power. HE ASKED YOU TO PUT God as the center of your life and not on what you wanted. He asked Jesus: "Are you the one who is coming or should we expect someone else?" His answer is "Do you see the lame walking, recovery of sight of the blind?" There is a new order in the world. God is visiting His people and salvation is close at hand.

As we listen to the call of John the Baptist we are reminded of our preparation in the season of Advent. We know it is a busy season but let us not lose sight of what we celebrate. The business of the season should not lose our focus of getting ready to greet Our Savior. Take time to get our minds and souls ready for the coming of Christ in Christmas. Get our souls ready to receive Our Lord by using the sacrament of reconciliation. What a good way to get our souls refreshed with a spirit of forgiveness from our Lord.

WE PREPARE for Christmas not for what Santa brings us or what we receive in gifts, but the gift of salvation JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD!
