GOSPEL MEDITATION - January 22, 2023 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a young seminarian, I asked a wise old priest how to pray better. He said simply, "Don't lie when you pray." He helped me to see how much energy I waste in trying to appear acceptable to God when I pray. For me, prayer was showing off for God and hiding what was ugly.

It's stunning that the Gospel of Matthew tells us of Jesus, "He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulon and Naphtali..." This isn't just the Lord's relocation up north. It's his moving into places of shame and defeat. This region was where the enemy invasion of Israel began centuries before. Jesus left the comfortable confines of Nazareth and sought out a place of darkness, not to bring shame, but to announce the dawning of his light.

When we pray, we usually prefer Jesus to stay put in our little Nazareths — where we feel comfortable, successful, and in control. But he moves. He re-locates into the Zebulons and Naphtalis of our shame, embarrassment, fear, and sense of being defeated. The question for us is: will we allow him to take up residence in those places in our prayer time? Will we talk to him honestly about our places of darkness? If we do, we're no longer lying when we pray.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The words in today's gospel, "This is my beloved, with Him I am pleased" are words every child needs to hear often. Affirmation is important to raise happy and confident children.

WORD OF LIFE!!

"I urge you...that you be united in the same... purpose." (1 Cor. 1:10) Spouses don't have to agree on everything, i.e. favorite meals, politics, how to wash the dishes – BUT, what is the ultimate purpose of your life together? Agree on that. Perhaps write a short marriage mission statement today.

PARENTING POINTERS!

"As Jesus was walking he saw two brothers...He said to them, Follow me." (Matthew 4:18-19) What does it mean for brothers, sisters, parents to "Follow Jesus." Do you all have to go to the same church, synagogue...? No, following Jesus is a Way of life, not a place of worship.

CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS – 3 WAYS FOR TEENS TO REBOOT

Sending and receiving messages late at night can make it hard to fall asleep or interrupt sleep. Teens want to stay connected to friends, but the lack of sleep or interrupted sleep can affect everything from their mood to their sports performance. Here are 5 tips to follow at night that will help boost energy and focus in the morning. 1.) Log off your messaging apps, social media and email at bedtime. 2.) Turn off your phone when it's time for bed don't just set it to vibrate. 3.) Get in the habit of powering off your devices – especially if they are in your room. Turn off all electronics, like laptops, tablets, TVs, and video game consoles. Blinking lights and glowing screens can make it harder to fall and stay asleep. Sticking to a cut-off curfew each night for your devices will give your brain some much needed tech-free downtime. For additional resources visit www.eriecd.org/childprotection .

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah foresaw a future reversal of fortune for the people living in the land of Zebulun and Naphtali. When have you received an unexpected blessing or gift in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul urged the believers in the city of Corinth to be of one heart and one mind as a community of faith, united in Jesus. How do you resolve division or conflict in your home or workplace?

Gospel:

In the Gospel reading we hear about the beginning of Jesus' public ministry in Capernaum which included teaching, healing, and calling the first four disciples. How do you think people initially reacted to Jesus?

What and Where Was Capernaum in the Bible?

In the ancient world, Capernaum was the place to live if you wanted a life as a merchant. Capernaum existed as a trading village of about 1500 people on the northwestern Galilean seashore to the south of Chorazin, and north of Gennesaret. Its name originates from two Hebrew words, kfar (village) and Nachum (an unknown man's name). In the Greek language, it means village of comfort. Founded in the second century BC, during the Greek Hellenistic Period, and fishing served as its main occupation. Capernaum held a garrison, served as an administrative center, and due to its location on the busy trade route, was a customs station. Its life extended through the 10th century AD, and it continued to prosper through the early Muslim period of the seventh and eighth centuries until the eleventh century, when thereafter it lost its station as a commercial center, degenerated, and its habitation vanished. Jesus taught much to His disciples while they were gathered in Capernaum, including:

“If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all” (Mark 9:35).

Whoever receives a child in Jesus' name receives Jesus (Mark 9:37).

Whoever is not against Christians is for them (Mark 9:40).

Difficult metaphorical passages about what happens if one causes another to sin and cutting off a hand to avoid temptation appear in Mark 9:42-49.

Be “salty” and preserve your testimony for the Lord (my paraphrase) (Mark 9:50).

Jesus issued a stern rebuke to Capernaum as He addressed their unrepentant hearts.

He said if His mighty works had been done in Sodom (Genesis 18:20), it would still exist.

He also contrasted Capernaum with Tyre and Sidon, saying judgment would be easier for them than Capernaum (Mark 11:20-24).

8 Fun Facts about the City of Capernaum

-This sign greets visitors to modern-day Capernaum, (now called Kfar Nahum): Capharnaum the town of Jesus.

-The Church of the Multiplication, which commemorates Jesus multiplying the loaves and fishes (Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-14) lies a few miles south of Capernaum.

Legend holds a large black rock under the altar of the church marks the spot where Jesus fed the multitudes.

-That Jesus lived in Capernaum fulfilled prophecy (Isaiah 9:1-2).

-Herod Antipas ruled the region and persecuted the Christians.

-A modern church sits atop the location of Peter's house, with a glass floor for viewing.

-The location of ancient Capernaum remained unknown until British archaeologist, Charles Wilson, found it in 1866.

-The ancient site remains a popular place for Christians who make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

-The Franciscans own and run the ancient site's archeological ruins.

As we reflect on Jesus' choice of Capernaum as His home, it's good to remember God makes no random choices. Everything Jesus did, He did with intentionality (Isaiah 61:1-3, Luke 9:51, e.g.). He knew the trade route was a grand place from which to spread His renown in the world at that time. We too should walk with intention as Christ's ambassadors, “running the race that is set before us” (Hebrews 12:2).
