EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLE POSTERS WILL BE BACK FEBRUARY 5TH~

Starting with Bettbrunn, Germany, 1125
In the Eucharistic miracle of Bettbrunn, a very pious farmer in an excess of zeal stole a sacred Host which he brought to his farm in Viehbrunn. One day, the Host accidentally fell to the ground, but no one could pick up the Sacred Species. Everything was tried, and finally the Bishop of Regensburg intervened. The Bishop was able to pick up the Host only after promising the Lord that he would build a church in honor of the Blessed Sacrament.

The poster of Bettrunn Germany is on the Maurus St. entrance.
Stop and read the full story.

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLE OF ERDING GERMANY, 1417

On Holy Thursday 1417 a peasant stole a consecrated Host, which, in the course of his journey, escaped from his hands and flew away in the air. He tried in vain to catch the sacred Host. It was only thanks to the direct intervention of the Bishop that he was able to recover the Sacred Particle. A chapel was immediately built on the site where the Miracle occurred. There were many cures and wonders attributed to the veneration of this miracle.

This poster is also on the Maurus St. entrance.
Please stop and continue to read on the Miracle of Erding, Germany.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In my parents' bedroom there were on the wall two photos of my mom and dad from their early adulthoods. The photo of my mother entranced me when I was a boy. I loved looking at it, even though I saw her in daily life. Something about that picture captured her perfectly. It was an image of the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength that enveloped me from the start of my life. It was an icon of the woman who fed, taught, and encouraged me. I felt a deep pride that I came from such beauty.

The beatitudes of Jesus are a kind of self-portrait. But it is a strange picture. At first, the blessings of being poor, mourning, and hungering and thirsting for righteousness may seem bizarre or, worse, a religious delusion.

Who wants to look like that? But if we look again, we begin to see the characteristics of Jesus' form. He becomes poor and fills it with his riches for us, he weeps and mourns for us, and fills it with his joy, he hungers and thirsts for us to be righteous, and so satisfies us. And so on. It's the way he appears on the cross.

Perhaps we should put on our bedroom room walls the words of the beatitudes next to a crucifix of the Lord Jesus. Then we can do what the beatitudes are designed for, to gaze at the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength of the one who is our origin, and who is with us every day. And little by little, we'll start to look like him.

Father John Muir

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Every day, God offers each of us countless opportunities to embody the Beatitudes. Blink and you might miss them. Where is God inviting you to poverty of spirit? Where does he beg you to hunger for righteousness? How does he ask you to make peace?

©LPi

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Zephaniah speaks of a "remnant of Israel" who will survive God's judgement and live as a humble and truthful people. What other qualities (besides humility and integrity) make for a good community?

Second Reading:

Paul offers us an interesting sketch of the members of the Corinthian community: foolish, weak, lowly, and despised. How would you describe your community of faith?

Gospel:

Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a list of eight "beatitudes" (blessings). Which of these beatitudes do you see in yourself?

©LPi

BEATITUDES:

- ◆ Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- ◆ Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- ◆ Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the Earth.
- ◆ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
- ◆ Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
- ◆ Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
- ◆ Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the Sons of God.
- ◆ Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- ◆ Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.
- ◆ Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
