CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

By now you should have received our Pastor Fr. Tom's letter and also your pledge card for the CSA.

Let us work together so we can make it possible for parishes, Catholic schools, Catholic charities, clergy and the Catholic faithful to live and share Christ's teaching. You may wonder why you should support the CSA. The truth is, as members of the Diocese of Erie, we play an important role in the diocesan activities of Catholic education, evangelization, promoting justice and serving people in need throughout our diocese. Our diocese has work to do on behalf of the Lord and we are all asked to share our gifts to help advance the mission of the church.

Your Gift is so Important!! Please help us to reach our goal of $45,305. Thank you for Giving!!

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

In today's gospel Jesus cautions it is not enough to provide food for our children; "one does not live on bread alone." Let Lent 2023 be a time when you are "led by the Spirit" to explore new ways to be a moral guide to your children.

WORD OF LIFE!!

Marriage is a mutual improvement society. This can seem self-serving as you try to give feedback to your beloved about how she/he can be a better person. How do you receive critical feedback? Listen with openness more than defensiveness.

Congratulations to
who were married on February 18, 2023.
May God grant them many blessings.

"Understand what you do, imitate what you celebrate, and conform your life to the mystery of the Lord's cross."

This is a Major Fundraiser for the parish so we appreciate your help to make it a success. God bless you for your support.

ELK COUNTY CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL RECENT ESSAY CONTEST AND WINNERS:

The Judith Manno Stager Right to Life Fund, administered by the Elk County Community Foundation (ECCF), awarded a grant to Elk County Catholic High School for a recent essay contest. The students were asked to create a convincing piece of writing that portrayed life as a beautiful choice. In the end, three poems, a short biography, and two fables took the top prizes and are great examples of truth, beauty and goodness so needed in our current culture..

Madison Marzullo

her and the baseball boy

March; the two blue lines on the gray-hued screen on the small, white stick the cold, tiled floor of the dorm's community bathroom decorating her bare feet the initial heart drop, the shock, the fear only 21 years old it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

April; thoughts have drowned her, as if she has been thrown around like dust the announcement turns her parents loving, her partner into denial she loves him, she does not want to be alone he just wants to play baseball, he has no time she has so much work to do for her education it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

May; it has progressed, the situation is official she cannot bring herself to leave all he wants to do is run through the bases, it is all he knows how to do one is 20, the other is 21 it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

June; the summer heat makes her sweat, as does her situation his arms swell from the weights, using frustration as his motivation she loves him, the baseball boy he is confused, the plan simply cannot go through it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

July; the last month she had promised herself she would get it done he begs, mercifully, how would he manage? this month would be the deciding factor; whom will she choose? her parents, supporting her to choose her situation, him, supporting her to choose a restart the choice it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

August; she started buying clothes, decorations, asking family for support he's been at practice, asking his dad for guidance they are both feeling lost the girl and the baseball boy it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

September; she has grown, significantly he feels the movements and sees the photographs the situation is real she begins to let tears stroll down her gentle, flushed cheeks he begins to hold her hand and caress her forehead, for the first time in awhile it seems nearly impossible but life goes on

October; the final two months, the moment is near she is stressfully writing papers while swallowing vitamins he is working out his financial situations they are both becoming responsible it's beginning to seem possible life has gone on

November; the nursery is ready, the items are bought she has packed a bag, full of items to celebrate what is coming he knows the event is near, so he decorates her finger with a diamond they have come together, slowly it is possible now life has gone on

December; the snow has fallen and the yellow-tinted street lights show through the darkness it is the 26th day of the month, the year 2004 he holds her hand and wipes her tears she is exhausted, but her decision is final she is here her baby girl is born it wasn't impossible, it was done life went on her baby girl's life went on

October 2022; her baby girl writes a poem, dedicated to her mother's courage and strength she talks about her mother and father: the girl and the baseball player who had chosen to let her have life her baby girl is an athlete, a friend, a scholar, a lover, a person it is always possible life will always go on life should always go on.
