A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Our children are like the Samaritan woman in today's gospel. They need more than material things. They need the 'living water' only good role models can give. It will teach them how to make decisions, take responsibility, respect themselves and others and live their commitments. With this "living water" they will "never thirst."

St. Patrick's Day (March 17 Principal Patronal Feast Day of the Diocese of Erie) falls on a Friday in Lent. In recognition of the importance of this day for the faithful, Bishop Persico has dispensed all Latin Catholics from the requirement of abstinence from eating meat on March 17, 2023 within the territory of the Diocese of Erie.

ELK COUNTY CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL RECENT ESSAY CONTEST AND WINNERS: Happy to announce the winners of the LOVE LIFE: Pro Woman, Pro Babies, Pro Love, Pro Life Writing Contest sponsored by: The Judith Manno Stager Right to Life Fund in conjunction with the English Department at ECCSS short biography, and two fables took the top prizes and are great examples of truth, beauty and goodness so needed in our current culture..

The following is a recounting of a mother's love for her son as retold by Gabrielle Weisner

I feel overwhelmed, as if I'm drowning. There is no way out, I'm stuck. There are so many options, yet I feel as if there is only one, abortion. I'm only seventeen. I live with my mother and my hidden unborn child. My mom has been through so much with her divorce that my heartbreaking news would only make the situation worse. How do I tell her I'm pregnant? The decision seems easier in my head than when I say it out loud. At fourteen, I was doing a lot of things to drown out a lot of emotional pain I was feeling because of abuses endured. I finally pulled it together, but not enough to carry or care for a child. I was and am still hurt and I've damaged my body so much that I don't think I'm capable of loving or being loved. I've always wanted a child, but not now, not like this. I'm only seventeen and I cannot deal with the toll this will take. It is too much. I want this baby deleted from my life. I want an abortion so my life will go back to normal. But maybe, just maybe, the baby will heal me. If I can find the courage to carry him.

Because there is doubt, I need to find someone to talk to...I could talk to my mom, but I know what she'll say, abortion is easier. I'll debate it alone. I'm going to follow my heart, and trust my instincts. "God gives his toughest battles to his strongest soldiers," and with His help, I will keep this baby, but I must leave my home. This shelter for pregnant girls will work, even though I'm only seventeen. I'm scared, anxious, yet excited. I can not wait to see what the future holds. If I decide I cannot be a mother, I can always put him up for adoption. There are plenty of families who long for a baby. If I can not figure out how to take care of myself and my baby, I will give him to someone who can. But for now, I am going to wait it out and see what I can do. I'm only seventeen, but I am determined. . .

The nine months went by so fast but at the same time, so slowly. I waited so long to decide that it was time for the baby to arrive. I was scared and nervous. As soon as he was born, his first cry was music. It was the happiest moment of my life! Seeing his little face, I was so grateful that God sustained me. He gave me the courage I needed. Later, I learned that approximately fifty percent of the pregnancies in the United States are unwanted. This statistic made me feel better and less guilty about wanting to abort him in the first place. I was not as alone as I thought.

Fast forward to today, all these years later, I see my son on stage in front of millions of people who love him and buy outrageously expensive tickets just to be in his presence. As I watch from my couch, I cannot even imagine the pain and suffering abortion would have caused leaving me to wonder what his life could have been. Instead I get to watch what his life unfolds, he is the one and only, Justin Bieber. If you are considering an abortion, you are not alone. I was there. I was scared, but your baby's life is worth it, and so are you.

Katie Petrosky

One moment,
Two pink lines,
Three people affected by one choice.
Four parents to tell,
Five minutes of silence followed by, "Do you have a plan?"
Four jobs,
Three months too long to decide if I want an abortion.
Two kids forgetting their immature ways and making grown up decisions.
One choice, life.

Ten people asking me in the halls if it is true.
Nine more months of school to endure.
Eight teachers to inform about why I have been absent.
Seven hour school days,
Six hours of work to follow,
Five days of the week.
Am I strong enough for this?
Four weeks between seeing my baby on an ultrasound.
Three lives completely changed.
Two outcomes, boy or girl.
One beautiful child, brought safely into the world.

One family,
Two dogs,
Three children later.
Four grandparents over for dinner every Saturday,
Five o'clock mass prior.
Six little eyes watching the priest and the world around them.
Seven nighttime Bible stories read,
Eight o'clock bedtime.
Nine goodnight kisses,
Ten years later.

We made it.
