GIVE YOUR LOVED ONES THE GIFT OF ENGAGEMENT ENCOUNTER

What better way to show your support of an upcoming marriage than with a gift that lasts a lifetime: Engagement Encounter. The next EE will be held on January 19-21, 2024, in Erie at St. Mark Catholic Center. Space is limited and early registrations are encouraged. Call the Family Life Office at 814-824-1261 or email familylife@erieRCD.org.

For more details and registration visit <https://www.erieRCD.org/familylifeoffice/>.

Remember, "A wedding is one day, but marriage is for a lifetime."

STRUGGLING TO SEE GOD

If right now you are facing life's challenges, grieving the loss of someone or something, caught in a pattern of sin, or enveloped in a blanket of darkness and you are inclined to shout, "Where are you God," do not lose hope! Matthew 5:8 gives us this assurance, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God."

Psalm 34:18-19 tells us,

"The righteous cry out, the LORD hears and he rescues them from all their afflictions. The LORD is close to the brokenhearted, saves those whose spirit is crushed."

EXCERPT 4TH DAY LETTERS FROM BROKEN DOOR~

Spirit Filled

I am learning and growing,
You are loving and showing,
Me how to live.

Growing is knowing,
Faith keeps on glowing,
As You are bestowing,
The grace to forgive.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

In today's gospel Jesus describes the vocation of marriage and parenting: "The greatest among you must be your servant." Children receive our genes, name and resources; and spouses share a lifelong commitment. A parent's servitude begins at the moment of conception, and the marriage covenant begins on the wedding day. The Lord is present in each of our acts of selfless service.

WORD OF LIFE!!

Election Day in the USA is Nov., 7.

Do you and your beloved share the same politics? If so, good, problem solved. Just make sure you vote. If not, that's also fine, but have you ever had a calm, respectful discussion about your views. You still don't have to agree, but it will probably strengthen your relationship. Then still vote – even if differently.

THANK YOU

Shining Hearts Group for Families

Shining Hearts is open to any families with children up to 6th grade. We get together monthly and create family time and meet other families. The kids have enjoyed meeting other children and creating great friendships for the whole family. We recently met at Sacred Heart for Family Fall Fun Day and the children had free play in the gym. Some children with their parents enjoyed a game of dodgeball. Watch for our next family event in November and come join us.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

27 Words That Matter

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture.

Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt. When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." — Matthew 22:40
